

The National Capital Chapter of Trout Unlimited presents
37TH ANNUAL NATIONAL CAPITAL ANGLING SHOW

Sunday, March 11, 2012, 10 am to 5:30 pm

Georgetown Preparatory School

10900 Rockville Pike, North Bethesda, MD

Featuring Barry and Cathy Beck

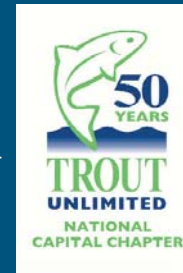

- BEAU BEASLEY: “Fly Fishing Venues in the Mid-Atlantic”
- DUSTY WISSMATH: “Fishing the Greater Yellowstone Region”
- SMALLMOUTH PANEL: “Status and Propects for Regional Smallmouth Bass,” with Mark Kovach (Potomac R.), Jeff Kelble (Shenandoah R.), and Brian Shumaker (Susquehanna R)
- MARYLAND BROOK TROUT PANEL: “Status, Policies, and Programs,” with Jim Gracie, MD DNR, and others
- TONY FRIEDRICH and JOHN PAGE WILLIAMS: “Status, Problems and Policies for the Chesapeake Bay Striped Bass Fishery”
- BILL HORN: “Seasons on the Flats: An Angler's Year in the Florida Keys”
- SPEAKER TO BE DETERMINED: “Getting Started in Trout Fishing”

PLUS

A host of tackle and fly shops, guides, silent auction, raffles, grand sweepstakes prizes, book & DVD sales and autographs, expert casting and fly tying instructors, activities for children, and environmental organizations.

Show profits are donated to local and national watershed conservation projects. For further information visit www.ncc-tu.org

www.ncc-tu.org